
CARRIER INSTRUCTIONS

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS

Armstrong Transport Group, Inc. is a full service Logistics Provider. We specialize in Full Truckload and Partial Truckload Services in The United States, Canada and Mexico. Our freight is considered time sensitive, meaning that on-time pickup and delivery is very important.

Our goal is to provide a beneficial business relationship between our carrier partners, whereas, you can depend on us for good quality loads that pay higher than the average and receive timely payment for your services. On the other hand, we need your cooperation and commitment as well. We need accurate information and timely responses. We also require the following:

All Drivers must speak to an Armstrong Transport dispatcher at the following times:

To be dispatched

When the driver is loaded at the assigned shipper

En-route if there are any problems or if there is going to be a delay

At the consignee, when the driver is unloaded or when empty

We will not be able to dispatch your truck until all paperwork is signed and returned to us.

Invoices along with signed rate confirmations and all BOLs should be mailed, fax, or emailed to the following:
